

Mobile Bay's 2013 Class of 40 Under Forty

Get to know the talented, bright, young things who are shaping the Bay area.

Photos by Todd Douglas

Andy Freeman, 34

Partner, Adams and Reese LLP

Andy Freeman, an “Alabama Rising Star in Real Estate Law,” has made remarkable contributions to the legal community of Mobile, making partner at Adams and Reese, LLP in 2012 at the age of 33. Andy has been awarded for his extensive charity and pro bono work (particularly in the Wills for Heroes Program) and is a graduate of Leadership Mobile.

Alma Mater B.S. and B.A., University of Alabama; J.D., University of Alabama School of Law
Hometown Mobile

First job Delchamps “courtesy clerk” (also known as a buggy boy)

Biggest pet peeve Laziness really drives me nuts.

High School Senior Superlative Most Likely to Succeed

As a child, what did you want to be when you grew up? Country music singer

If you could be any age again, what would it be? 22

Best advice you have ever received Two-way tie between “no one is indispensable” and “work hard and make yourself indispensable.”

How has your career as an attorney enabled you to give back to the community of Mobile?

It has enabled me to participate in the Volunteer Lawyers Program, helping those needing legal help at no cost. In particular, I’ve enjoyed participating in Wills for Heroes, providing health-care directives and wills for our local emergency responders.